PART III
REGISTRATION OF POLITICAL PARTIES

5. (1) There shall be a Register to be known as the Register of Political Parties which, subject to subsection (2), shall be maintained in such form and shall contain such particulars regarding registered political parties as the Commission may determine.

(2) Notwithstanding the generality of subsection (1), the following shall be entered into the Register of Political Parties in respect of each registered political party -

(a) the name of the political party;
(b) the date of application for registration under the Act;
(c) particulars regarding –
   (i) the Leader of the political party;
   (ii) the authorized representative; and
(d) the number and the date appearing on the Certificate of Registration issued under section 12.

(3) The information contained in the Register of Political Parties and every decision of the Commission regarding the registration or application for registration of a political party under this Act is public information.
(4) The Register of Political Parties shall be kept at such place as the Commission may from time to time determine and shall be made available to the public for inspection in accordance with guidelines set by the Commission.

6. (1) Notwithstanding any other law, a nomination made in relation to an election shall be invalid unless the nomination is in respect of—

(a) a registered political party;
(b) a person who stands for election in the name of a registered political party; or
(c) a person who does not stand for election in the name of any political party.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1) (b) a person stands for election in the name of a registered political party if his nomination paper includes a certificate issued by or on behalf of the authorized representative of the registered political party authorizing him to stand for election in the name of the political party.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (1) (c), a person does not stand for election in the name of any political party if—

(a) he is described as an independent in his nomination paper for the relevant elections; or
(b) no description of the candidate is given in his nomination paper.

7. (1) A political party desirous of being registered under this Act shall make an application to the Commission for the registration of the political party.

(2) An application to register a political party shall be made to the Commission by the authorized representative of the political party in the prescribed form and shall be accompanied by -

(a) a petition signed by at least [ ] eligible voters in support of the application for registration and duly counter-signed by the authorized representative of the political party;

(b) the names and addresses of the Leader and the authorized representative of the political party;

(c) a full description of the identifying symbols, slogans, and colours, if any, of the political party;

(d) the headquarters of the political party;

(e) the prescribed registration fee; and

(f) such other particulars as the Commission may reasonably require.

(3) The registration fee paid under subsection (2) is not refundable.

8. (1) Subject to subsection (3), the Commission shall, not later than [seven] days after the receipt of an application for registration under section 7 –

(a) issue to the political party a provisional certificate of registration in the prescribed form; and

(b) cause a notice of the application to be published in the Gazette as well as the print and electronic media, inviting objections from any person, concerning the [registration of the political party] [name, symbols, slogans and colours of the political party].

(2) A notice by the Commission under subsection (1)(b) shall stipulate that objections may be made within a period of [fourteen] days after the publication of the notice.

(3) Where no notice is issued by the Commission within the [seven] days period stipulated in subsection (1), an objection concerning the [registration of the political party] [name, symbols, slogans and colours of the political party] may be made within a period of [twenty-one] days after the application for registration.

(4) An objection under subsection (1)(b) or (3) may not be considered by the Commission if it is made after the expiration of the period stipulated in the notice under subsection (1) or allowed under subsection (3) as the case may be.

(5) The Commission may, in addition to inviting objections to the application under subsection (1)(b), cause an independent inquiry to be made to ascertain the truth or correctness of the particulars submitted with the application for registration pursuant to section 7.

9. (1) Where an application for the registration of a political party is defective according to the provisions of this Act, the Commission shall, no later than [twenty-one] days after receipt of the application –
   (a) notify the authorized representative in writing of the defect; and
   (b) grant the political party [seven] days to cure the defect.

(2) For the purpose of subsection (1), an application is defective if –
   (a) it is incomplete; or
   (b) particulars submitted pursuant to section 7 are inaccurate.

(3) Where the defect is not cured within the [seven] days granted under subsection (1)(b) –
   (a) the application shall be deemed to have been withdrawn; and
   (b) the Commission shall cancel the provisional certificate of registration issued to the political party under section 8.
10. (1) Where the Commission receives an objection under section 8, then unless consideration of the objection is not permitted by virtue of section 8(4), the Commission shall –

(a) notify the authorized representative of the objection; and

(b) grant the political party [seven] days within which to respond.

(2) Where –

(a) after considering the response of the political party the Commission upholds the objection; or

(b) the political party fails to respond to the objection within the time granted under subsection (1)(b), the Commission shall refuse to register the political party and cancel the provisional certificate of registration issued to that political party under section 8.

11. (1) Where pursuant to inquiries under section 8(5) the Commission makes a preliminary finding that particulars submitted with the application for registration are materially false, the Commission shall –

(a) notify the authorized representative in writing of the preliminary finding; and

(b) grant the political party [fourteen] days within which to respond.

(2) Where –

(a) after considering the response of the political party the Commission is satisfied that particulars submitted with the application for registration are materially false; or

(b) the political party fails to respond to the preliminary finding within the time granted under subsection (1)(b), the Commission shall refuse to register the political party and cancel the provisional certificate of registration issued to that political party under section 8.

Full registration.

12. (1) Where the Commission is satisfied that the relevant provisions of this Act on registration have been complied with, it shall no later than [forty-five] days after receipt of the application for the registration of a political party under this Act register the political party in the Register of Political Parties.

(2) Upon registration of a political party the Commission shall –
   (a) notify authorized representative of the registration of the political party under the Act; and
   (b) issue to the political party, a Certificate of Registration in the prescribed form.

[(3) A Certificate of Registration issued under subsection (2) shall be valid for a period of [ ] from the date of issue unless it is earlier cancelled in accordance with this Act.]

(4) Where the Commission registers a political party under this Act, it shall publish the fact of the registration of the political party in the Gazette, specifying -
   (a) the full name of the political party;
   (b) any desired abbreviation of the name for use on ballot papers;
   (c) the headquarters of the political party;
   (d) a full description of the identifying symbol, slogan and colours of the political party; and
   (e) the names of the leader, authorized representative and members of the executive committee of the political party.

(5) Upon registration under this Act, a political party shall be a body corporate with perpetual succession [and may sue and be sued in its] corporate name, and shall have the power to acquire, hold, manage or dispose of [movable or immovable property] [real or personal property] and enter into any contract or other transaction as any legal person.]

[(6) A registered political party shall not by reason of subsection (5) be liable to pay taxes as a body corporate.]

13. Where after the expiration of [forty-five] days after receipt of the application for registration the Commission, for any reason, fails to notify the authorized representative of the political party of—

(a) the registration of the political party in accordance with section 12(2)(a); or

(b) its decision to refuse registration of the political party pursuant to section 10(2) or 11(2), the political party shall be deemed to have been registered under this Act.

14.(1) In addition to any other grounds specifically provided under any other provision of this Act, the Commission shall refuse to register a political party under this Act where any of the following grounds exist—

(a) the application was not made in accordance with the provisions of this Act;

(b) particulars submitted with the application are false in a material particular and there is a failure to carry out the required corrections within the timeframe granted under section 11(1)(b);

(c) particulars submitted with the application are defective and there is a remedy the defect within the timeframe granted under section 9(1)(b);

(d) the political party seeking registration has a name which, in the discretion of the Commission, may incite hatred or violence;
(e) the political party applying for registration has any identifying symbol, slogan, colour or name which—

(i) is the same as;

(ii) so closely reassembles; or

(iii) is so similar to,

the symbol, slogan, colour or name of a registered or an already established political party that it is likely to deceive or confuse members of the public or confusion is otherwise likely to result.

(2) Where two or more applications for registration are received on the same day in respect of different political parties and the identifying symbol, slogan, colour or name of one of the political parties—

(a) is the same as the identifying symbol, slogan, colour or name of the other political party or parties, as the case may be; or

(b) so closely reassembles the symbol, slogan, colour or name of the other political party or parties, as the case may be, as to be likely to deceive or confuse members of the public or confusion is otherwise likely to result; and

(c) the Commission after taking into account the totality of the circumstances, including history and the time at which each political party submitted its application is unable to determine which political party shall have the right to use the symbol, slogan, colour or name, the Commission shall, in writing, notify the authorized representative of each political party of its inability to register the political party in the circumstances.

Appeal against refusal of registration.

15. (1) A political party whose application for registration is refused by the Commission under this Act, may within [seven] of receipt of notification of the refusal from the Commission, apply to the Commission for a reconsideration of its decision not to register the political party.

(2) Where, within [seven] days after an application has been made to it under subsection (1), the Commission refuses or fails to issue the political party a Certificate of Registration, the political party may appeal to the [High Court] against the decision of the Commission.

(3) The appeal shall be on notice to the Commission and such other persons as the Court may direct.

16. (1) Subject to subsection (2) the Commission may cancel a Certificate of Registration issued to a political party under this Act –

   (a) for non-compliance with any provision or requirement of this Act; or

   (b) where the Commission discovers any fact, which had it been known prior to the issuance of the Certificate of Registration, the Commission could have refused to register the political party.

(2) Prior to cancelling a Certificate of Registration, the Commission shall give the political party –

   (a) written notice of the grounds for cancellation; and

   (b) [fourteen] days within which to respond.

(3) Where the Commission cancels a Certificate of Registration, it shall notify the authorized representative in writing of the cancellation setting out the reasons for the cancellation.

17. Without prejudice to any penalty specifically provided for contravention of any provision of this Act, where a political party is convicted of an offence under this Act, the Court may order the Commission to cancel the Certificate of Registration of that political party.

18. A political party whose Certificate of Registration is cancelled by the Commission under—

(a) section 17, may appeal to the Court of Appeal;

(b) under any other provision, may appeal to the [High Court].

19. Within [seven] days after the issue to it of a Certificate of Registration, the political party shall submit to the Commission the names, titles and addresses of the members of its executive committee.

(2) Where a political party—

(a) refuses or fails to comply with subsection (1); or

(b) submits information to the Commission that is materially false, the Commission may cancel the Certificate of Registration of that political party.

20. (1) A registered political party shall not make any changes or alteration to its identifying symbol, slogan, colour or name except in accordance with this section.

(2) Before making any changes or alterations to its identifying symbol, slogan, colour or name, a registered political party shall apply in the prescribed form and manner to the Commission to have the relevant entry in the Register of Political Parties amended.

(3) The Commission shall within [seven] days of the date of receipt of the application cause a notice of the proposed change or alteration to be published in the Gazette as well as the print and electronic media, inviting objections from any person, concerning the change or alteration being entered in the Register of Political Parties.

(4) The Commission may, in addition to inviting objections to the application under subsection (3), cause an independent inquiry to be made to ascertain whether the change or alteration should be entered in the Register of Political Parties.

(5) A change or alteration shall come into effect [seven] days after publication by the Commission of the notice under subsection (3) if—

(a) no objection is made to the change or alteration;

(b) no grounds for the refusal of an application for registration apply in relation to the application under subsection (2); or

(c) an inquiry by the Commission pursuant to subsection (4) does not disclose any grounds for the refusal of the application.

(6) Where a registered political party purports to make any changes or alterations to its identifying symbol, slogan, colour or name otherwise than in accordance with this section the Commission may cancel the Certificate of Registration of that political party.

21. (1) Where the Commission receives an objection within [7] days of the publication of a notice under section 20(3) the Commission shall—

(a) notify the authorized representative of the objection; and

(b) grant the political party [seven] days within which to respond.

(2) Where—

(a) after considering the response of the political party the Commission upholds the objection; or

(b) the political party fails to respond to the objection within the time granted under subsection (1)(b), the Commission shall refuse to amend the Register of Political Parties.

22. (1) Where, pursuant to inquiries under section 20(4), the Commission makes a preliminary determination that the change or alteration should not be made to the Register of Political Parties, the Commission shall—

(a) notify the authorized representative in writing of the of the preliminary determination; and

The contents of this document do not necessarily reflect the opinions of the Organization of American States or its Members.
(b) grant the political party [seven] days within which to respond.

(2) Where –

(a) after considering the response of the political party the Commission determines that the Register of Political parties should not be changed or altered; or

(b) the political party fails to respond to the findings within the time granted under subsection (1)(b), the Commission shall refuse to change or alter the Register of Political Parties.

23. (1) A political party whose application to change or alter the Register of Political Parties is refused by the Commission under section 21 or 22, may within [seven] days of receipt of notification from the Commission of the refusal, apply to the Commission for a reconsideration of its decision.

(2) Where, within [seven] days after an application has been made to it under subsection (1), the Commission refuses or fails to amend the Register of Political Parties, the political party may appeal to the [High Court] against the decision of the Commission.

(3) The appeal shall be on notice to the Commission and such other persons as the Court may direct.

24. Where two or more political parties merge as one party, the Certificate of Registration which any of the political parties had immediately before the effective date of the merger shall lapse.
25. (1) A political party shall maintain accounting records with respect to the party which are sufficient to disclose, with reasonable accuracy, at any time the financial position of the political party.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), the accounting records shall in particular contain –

(a) entries showing from day to day all sums of money received and expended by the political party, and the matters in respect of which the receipt and expenditure take place; and

(b) a record of the assets and liabilities of the political party.

(3) The accounting records made for the purposes of this section shall be kept by the political party for at least [six] years from the end of the financial year in which they are made.

(4) Where a political party ceases to exist within the [six] years period mentioned in subsection (3) as it applies to any accounting records, the political party shall forward to the Commission forthwith all such accounting records unless the Commission, in writing, directs otherwise.

26. (1) A [registered political party] [political party whether or not registered under this Act] shall, within [ninety] days after the [issue to it of a Certificate of Registration under section 12] [commencement of this Act] or such longer period as the Commission may allow, submit to the Commission a written declaration giving details of –

(a) its assets and liabilities; and

(b) contributions or donations in cash or in kind made to the assets of the political party since the [date of its application for registration] [commencement of this Act].

(2) A declaration submitted to the Commission under subsection (1) shall –
(a) state the sources of the assets of the political party; and
(b) contain such other particulars as the Commission may from time to time in writing direct.

[(3) The Commission shall, within [fourteen] days after receipt of the declaration required under subsection (1), cause it to be published in the Gazette.]

(4) Without prejudice to any other penalty prescribed by this Act or any other enactment, where a political party -
(a) refuses or neglects to comply with this section; or
(b) submits a declaration which is false in any material particular, the Commission may in the case of a registered political party, cancel the Certificate of Registration of that political party and in the case of a any other political party, bar the political party from registering under the Act for a period of [     ].

27. (1) A political party shall, on or before the [1st March] in every year, statement of the -

(a) accounts of the political party;
(b) sources of its funds;
(c) contributions or donations in cash or kind; and
(d) real/immovable property of the political party and time of acquisition.

(2) A person who wilfully makes, or causes to be made, any false entry in, or omission from, any statement by subsection (1) commits an offence and liable on conviction to a fine of [ ] dollars.

[(3) A copy of the statement made for the purposes of subsection (1) shall be kept by the political party for at least [six] years from the end of the financial year in which they are made.]

(4) The Commission, after inspecting the accounts submitted pursuant to subsection (1) may –

(a) [for the benefit of members of the public, publish any matter in relation to the statement] [A person may, on payment of a fee determined by the Commission, inspect or obtain copies of the returns of a political party filed with the Commission under this section]; or

(b) direct the political party to have its accounts audited within [three] months of the receipt of the statement.

(5) Where a political party fails or refuses to submit the audited accounts in accordance with subsection (4) –

(a) the Commission may, in the case of a registered political party, cancel the Certificate of Registration of that political party and in the case of a any other political party, bar the political party from registering under the Act for a period of [ ]; and

(b) the political party and every member of the executive each commit an offence and liable on conviction to a fine of [ ] dollars.

(6) Upon conviction of a political party for an offence under subsection (5), the court may order any specified member of the executive committee, whether or not such officer has been convicted, to deliver to the Commission no later than [fourteen] days from the date of the order, such financial records of the political party as the court thinks fit.
(7) The executive member who fails [without just cause] to comply with an order under subsection (6) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine of [ ] dollars in respect of each day or part of a day during which such failure continues.

28. (1) Notwithstanding section 27, the Commission may at any time upon reasonable grounds order the accounts of a political party to be audited by an auditor appointed by the Commission.

(2) The fees and expenses of an auditor appointed by the Commission pursuant to subsection

(a) shall be paid by [the Commission][political party].

(b) Where the Commission appoints an auditor under subsection

(c), the political party shall, within such time as the Commission may in writing direct, submit all relevant financial records to the auditor.

(4) Where a political party fails or refuses to submit the financial records to the auditor pursuant to directions from the Commission under subsection

(a) the political party and every member of the executive each commit an offence and liable on conviction to a fine of [ ] dollars; and

STATE FINANCING OF POLITICAL PARTIES

57. (1) There is hereby established in the Commission, a fund to be known as the Political Parties Fund operating as a fund for subsidizing qualifying political parties.

(2) The Fund shall consist of -

(a) money received from budgetary appropriations;
(b) donations sent to the Commission pursuant to section 37;
(c) fines received from administrative or criminal penalties under this Act;
(d) any property forfeited to the Commission under this Act;
(e) fruits of the Fund; and
(f) other revenues.
(3) The remittance of fines under subsection (2)(c) or property under (d) to the Fund shall be in accordance with such rules and procedures as may be prescribed by the Commission.

58. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), the moneys standing to the credit of the Fund shall be deposited in a separate banking account to be opened by the Commission with a bank registered in [ ].

[(2) The moneys of the Fund that is not required immediately for making allocations to political parties under section 60, may be invested by the Commission.]

(3) All moneys standing to the credit of the Fund at the end of any financial year will be carried forward to the next financial year as a credit balance.

59. (1) The Commission shall be responsible for the management and administration of the Fund.

(2) For each financial year the Commission shall keep records of account, in accordance with generally accepted accounting practice and procedures, of—

(a) all moneys received by or accruing to the Fund;
(b) all allocations and payments made from the Fund;
(c) all expenditure arising from the allocation of moneys from the Fund;
(d) a current record of the capital and liabilities of the Fund.

60. (1) Subject to this Part, a political party is entitled in each Parliamentary year to receive from the Fund the sums of money that are payable to it in accordance with this Part.

(2) Subject to subsection (6), a political party is entitled to be allocated moneys from the Fund for any financial year that it is represented in the [House of Assembly/National Assembly/House of Representatives]
(3) Allocations from the Fund shall be made to each of the political parties concerned in accordance with a prescribed formula based in part on the –

(a) principle of proportionality, taking into account, inter alia, the relation that the number of such a political party’s representatives in the [National Assembly] bears to the total membership of the [National Assembly]; and

(b) principle of equity, taking into account, inter alia, a fixed threshold for a minimum allocation to each of the political parties represented in the [National Assembly].

OR

(3) Allocations from the Fund shall be made in such a manner that an equal amount of moneys is determined for each representative in the [National Assembly], such that each political party shall receive funds proportionally to the number of its representatives at the moment of constituting the National Assembly.

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3), no account shall be taken of votes cast for any one or more members of Parliament who stood in the name of another political party or as an independent candidate at the election concerned but subsequently join a political party.

(5) Where a representative leaves or changes membership in a political party after the constitution of the [National Assembly], funds allocated in compliance with subsection (3) shall remain with the political party to which the representative belonged at the moment of constituting the [National Assembly].

(6) The allocation of moneys from the Fund to a political party will end when the party ceases qualifying therefor in terms of subsection (2).

(7) A political party shall within 21 days after the date on which it ceases to qualify for allocation of moneys from the Fund, repay to the Commission the unspent balances, as at that date, of all moneys that had been allocated to it in terms of this section.

[(6) A party shall not qualify for the grant to it of a subvention in accordance with this Act unless it is a party which is fully registered under this Act.]

61. (1) The Commission shall, as soon as is practicable, and in any case no later than [thirty] days after the beginning of the financial year, publish a notice in the Gazette specifying the total amount of moneys appropriated for all qualifying political parties and the amount that shall be paid to each qualifying political party pursuant to this Act.

(2) As soon as practicable after the publication of the notice referred to in subsection (1), the Commission shall pay each qualifying political party the moneys it is entitled to receive pursuant to this Part.

OR

(2) Moneys from the Fund shall be allocated to qualifying political parties once in every financial year and in such installments as the Commission may determine.

OR

(2) Moneys from the Fund shall be allocated to qualifying political parties at the times or intervals and in the installments as may be prescribed.

62. (1) Subject to subsection (3), the moneys allocated to a political party may be used for any purposes compatible with its functioning as a political party in a modern democracy.

(2) Without limiting the scope of subsection (1), the purposes include -

(a) the development of the political will of people;

(b) bringing the political party's influence to bear on the shaping of public opinion;
(c) inspiring and furthering political education;
(d) promoting active participation by individual citizens in political life;
(e) exercising an influence on political trends.

(3) Moneys allocated to a political party from the Fund may not be used -
(a) for the purpose of directly or indirectly paying any remuneration, fee, reward, perquisite or other benefit to any person representing the political party in the [National Assembly];
(b) with a view to financing or contributing to any matter, cause, event or occasion, whether directly or indirectly, in contravention of any code of ethics binding on the members of [the National Assembly];
(c) directly or indirectly for the purpose of establishing any business or acquiring or maintaining any right or financial interest whatsoever in any business, or in any immovable/real property, except where the right or interest in the immovable/real property is to be used by the political party solely for ordinary party-political purposes; and
(d) for any other purpose that is incompatible with a political party's functioning in a modern democracy, as may be prescribed.

63. (1) Moneys allocated to a political party from the Fund shall be accounted for to the Commission, separately from the accounting for other funds of the political party.

(2) Every political party to which moneys are allocated from the Fund, shall keep, with a bank registered in [ ], a separate banking account into which all moneys so allocated to the political party must be deposited.

(3) The political party shall, for each financial year for which moneys have been allocated to it from the Fund, keep separate books and records of account, in the prescribed manner, in respect of those moneys and all transactions involving those moneys.

(4) Within two months after the end of a financial year for which moneys have been allocated to it from the Fund, the political party shall –

(a) prepare a statement showing all amounts received by the political party from the Fund during that financial year and its application of those moneys, as well as the purposes for which the various amounts have been applied; and

(b) submit that statement and the books and records of account to an auditor to be audited.

(5) The auditor’s report and audited statement must be submitted to the Commission by the political party within three months after the end of that financial year.

(6) Notwithstanding subsection (4), the Commission may at any time audit a political party’s books and records of account and financial statements relating to moneys allocated to it from the Fund.

(7) Subject to subsection (8), the Commission-

(a) may suspend the allocation of moneys to a political party from the Fund if satisfied on reasonable grounds that the political party has failed to comply with any requirement of this Act; and

(b) shall terminate the suspension if satisfied, in the light of the political party’s subsequent conduct, that the suspension is no longer justified.

(8) Allocations to a political party may be suspended under subsection (7) only if the Commission has -
(a) notified the authorized representative of the political party of the proposed suspension and of the reasons thereof; and

(b) has given the political party [30] days from the date of the notice, to show cause why its allocations from the Fund should not be suspended.

(9) A political party which fails or neglects to account for moneys allocated in accordance with this Part, shall forfeit the right to any subsequent allocation due to the political party in accordance with this Act for the remainder of the electoral term.

(10) Where the Commission is for any reasonable cause, dissatisfied with any account submitted by a political party under this Part, so much of the moneys which has not been accounted for or has not been accounted for satisfactorily, shall be deducted from any subsequent allocation due to the political party.

64. (1) Where any moneys allocated to a political party pursuant to this Part have not been utilized in accordance with the requirements of this Part, the political party shall be liable to repay to the Commission the moneys that were irregularly spent.

(2) Moneys repaid to the Commission under subsection (1) shall be credited to the Fund.

(2) The Commission may recover the moneys irregularly spent by-

(a) instituting a civil claim in respect of the amount irregularly spent, against the political party concerned; or

(b) setting off the amount irregularly spent against any allocation that may be or may become payable to the political party.

65. (1) As soon as possible after the end of each financial year, the Commission to The Commission shall cause to be prepared:

(a) a report regarding its management and administration of the Fund during that financial year;

(b) financial statements in relation to the Fund, showing:
   (i) the amounts received by and accrued to the Fund, including the amounts of the unspent balances of moneys repaid to the Commission, if applicable, during that financial year;
   (ii) the allocations made from the Fund to the respective political parties during that year;
   (iii) the amounts spent during that year by each political party; and
   (iv) the balance of the Fund and any amounts owing to or by the Fund as at the end of that year.

(2) The Commission shall submit the report, statements and the Commission’s books and records of account relating to the Fund to the [Auditor-General] for auditing.

(3) Within 30 days after receipt of the Auditor-General’s report, the Commission shall submit the report to [Parliament] together with the audited financial statements of the Fund and the audited Commission’s report.

66. (1) Any unspent moneys, as at the end of the financial year, in the account kept by the political party for the purposes of section 54(2), shall be shown in that political party’s relevant books and records of account as a credit balance carried forward to the next financial year.

(2) The moneys carried forward to the next financial year may not be taken into account in determining any allocation to be made to the political party concerned during that financial year.
(3) Where [Parliament] is dissolved, every political party represented in therein shall close its books and records of account kept pursuant to this Part not later than [21] days before the date set for the election and within 14 days thereafter submit an statement in respect of those books and records of account to the Commission.

(4) Not later than [the day immediately before the date set for the election], a political party shall repay to the Commission the unspent balances, as at the date when its books and records of account are closed, of all the moneys that had been allocated to it pursuant to this Part.
