

BIOGRAPHY

Lowena West

Vice President of Civil Society Bahamas

Based in Nassau Bahamas, Lowena West, is a Chief Consultant and member of the Caribbean Institute of Certified Management Consultants (CICMC), has been operating in niche markets and is synergized to respond on demand to provide international relations, development, community economics, and communications consulting services. Lowena West has designed organizational management projects for consultancies funded and implemented by private/public sectors, academic institutions, governments, and international development agencies worldwide since 2000.

Lowena West, a cross cultural leader and well grounded in policy-making is a born United States Citizen and Permanent Resident of The Commonwealth of The Bahamas holding a dual Masters Degree in Business Administration (MBA) and Masters Degree in Community Economic Development (MSc) from Southern New Hampshire University, with over 13 years of diverse professional and technical expertise. In additon, Ms. West provides technical assistance to public and private entities on major problems it faces in delivering development support and public information to people in need.